

our company is ready to accomplish any type of work. Our team can make redecoration as well as massive reconstruction and improvement of buildings. All works are fulfilled per current standards; project-designs are approved in governmental structures. Construction process includes: land clearing, earthwork (excavation, land and soil consolidation), foundation making and cellar walls, erection of bearing and filler structures of buildings (assembling of metal structures, prefabricated and solid concrete, reinforced concrete elements, stonework, brickwork, block works, assembling of wooden structures and elements), assembling of engineering services (heating, ventilation, conditioning, water supply and sanitation, electricity and feeble current networks, tube equipment, etc), connection of building to outer engineer networks, outer and inner trimming, accomplishment and landscaping.